

SCRAMBLED QUEEN I

by Mark Lagasse

Ellery Queen was the pseudonym of the writing team of Frederic Dannay and Manfred B. Lee, and also the name of their popular detective. Naturally, this is our cue to mention our excellent sister publication, Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine! Simply unscramble the letters of each numbered entry to spell the middle part of a title of an early Queen novel, which will always start with The and end with Mystery (Some later ones will appear in the next issue's puzzle.) For example, SNAPPISH ACE would be (The) Spanish Cape (Mystery).
