

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2018 Solution to

DYING WORDS

WORD LIST

- | | | |
|----------------|---------------|---------------|
| A. Kalahari | I. Grilling | Q. Egg-shaped |
| B. Opting | J. Inventor | R. Mad Hatter |
| C. Retorts | K. Red lights | S. Illustrate |
| D. Elbowing | L. Lighthouse | T. Stilton |
| E. Lawn mowers | M. Salty | U. Shipshape |
| F. Ideology | N. Griddles | V. Inherits |
| G. Thirstier | O. Odd lots | W. Neighborly |
| H. Zucchetto | P. Nitwits | X. Galahad |

QUOTATION

Author — (Jean Hanff) KORELITZ

Work — GIRLS GONE MISSING

(The New York Times—July 31, 2016)

“It is . . . acknowledged that any thriller hoping to grasp the publishing zeitgeist must have in its title the word ‘gone,’ the word ‘girl’ or ideally both, so it’s hardly surprising that two . . . thrillers are called Good as Gone and All the Missing Girls.”