

SCRAMBLED MASON II

by Mark Lagasse

In the last issue, we challenged you to come up with the names of some early Perry Mason mysteries. This time around, we're focusing on some of Erle Stanley Gardner's more recent books starring his famous lawyer. Simply unscramble the letters of each numbered entry to spell the last part of a title of a Perry Mason novel, which will always start with "The Case of the." For example, HUMAN-PROOF TENT would be (The Case of the) Phantom Fortune.
